

National Latino Cosmetology Association (NLCA)

Who is the NLCA?

The National Latino Cosmetology Association is a non-profit trade association made up of professionals representing the entire gamut of the beauty industry, cosmetology students, distributors, and manufacturers dedicated to improving their individual businesses and the industry as a whole. Led by industry leaders and volunteers, NLCA supports the beauty industry by providing educational and career development resources to the beauty professional and student, while also serving as a business resource and advocate for business owners, manufacturers, and distributors in the beauty industry.
